

Pausachya Paulkhuna – (25 August 2026)

On 25 August 2026, the Marathi Department of the Postgraduate Degree Section, SNTD Women's University, organised a literary programme titled "Pausachya Paulkhuna" (Footprints of the Rain).

As part of the celebration, ten students from our Marathi Department presented monsoon poems, capturing the beauty, rhythm, and emotions of the rainy season.

The programme not only enriched the academic environment but also nurtured a deeper appreciation for Marathi literature celebrating the joy of nature's renewal.
