

Smt. Maniben M. P. Shah Women's College of Arts & Commerce
Matunga-400019

B.A- Psychology

Objectives:

1. To introduce students to the basic concepts of Psychology.
2. To teach students physiological, psychological and socio-cultural basis of behavior.
3. To enable the students to comprehend the basic concepts of Human Development processes.
4. To clear the concepts of learning, memory, thinking and attention along with abnormality and various theoretical perspectives of mental illnesses.
5. To train students in psychological testing and assessment and various cognitive practical through experiential learning
6. To position personality as one of the important domains of understanding human behavior
7. To help students understand the nature, uses, and the process of construction of psychological tests.
8. To help students understand the basic concepts in Statistics and apply methods of calculation of the various measures.
9. To prepare students for pursuing Post graduate studies in Psychology

Outcomes:

1. Students will be sensitized to issues related to mental health
2. Students will develop analytical skills and scientific principles to study human behavior
3. Students can apply basic counseling skills for self and extend it to the community
4. Students will have open mind to new perspectives and become inclusive and accepting towards society.
5. Students can apply for further studies in various fields of psychology, management, civil services and social work.
6. They will have good career opportunities in education, mental health services, advertising, marketing and the field of management

Officer on Special Duty
Academic Section
SNDT Women's University,
Mumbai - 400 020.