

Smt. Maniben M. P. Shah Women's College of Arts & Commerce
Matunga-400019

M.A Hindi

Objectives:

1. To enhance knowledge of students by introducing them to various authors and their contributions in the field of Literature
2. To help students understand how a particular topic can be studied from various perspectives.
3. To help inculcate competencies necessary for professions like teaching, media, translation and creative writing.
4. To instill love for Hindi literature and knowledge about literature

Program Outcomes:

At the end of the 2 years Degree programme

1. Students will become aware of the contributions made by eminent personalities from the field through their books published
2. Students will develop professional skills through the Internship program.
3. Students gain knowledge in comparative literature and its eminence in our culture
4. Students will be equipped with research skills and will be able to pursue higher education
5. Students will be able to choose career options such as school or college teacher, translators, civil services, media studies.

Archana R. Bhargava
5/3/2019,

Officer on Special Duty
Academic Section
SNDT Women's University,
Mumbai - 400 020.