

Women cell of SMT.MMP Shah College of Arts and Commerce for Women, Matunga, had organized a webinar on “Sexual Violence on Women and Children and Pocso act” on 19th April 2021 at 11 am.

The program started with a university song sung by student Madhavi Pawar from Marathi medium. The Arts faculty in-charge Mrs Renuka Prajapati delivered a welcome speech. Mrs Rashmi Tupe, introduced the guest speaker Adv. Parsis Sidhva of the program.

Adv. Parsis Sidhva focused on terrible situations faced by the women and children in our society. She also laid down the procedure to obtain legal support on every issue related to domestic violence and assaults. She debunked and explained all the myths regarding court procedures.

She introduced the “pocso act” and described on how important it is to create victim friendly atmosphere.

Priyanka a student from Marathi medium ended the program with a motivational song and the national anthem.

The vote of thanks was given by Dr Usha Mishra convenor of Women Cell Committee. The program was anchored by Dr Rekha Shelar.